

What's on in Cornwall | 3rd-5th September 2021 | Community Events

Where	What	When
Penzance	The Cornish Pirates vs the Royal Navy , at Mennaye Field Penzance, kick off 19.30. Tickets here	Fri 3rd Sep
	A cycle race is being organised by British Cycling and Wheal Velocity Cycle Club, who run the only youth road and cyclocross cycling academy in Cornwall. 'Criterium' racing (on a tarmac circuit which is closed to vehicles) starts from 10.00 and has categories from under 8s to women's and men's adult racing with cash prizes. At 12.10 there will also be a family fun ride on the course. Online entry at www.britishcycling.org.uk	Sat 4 Sep
	The Golowan Fireworks display will be held in Penzance Harbour	Sat 4 Sep 9.30pm o
	All eyes will be on the start line and the Grand Départ . Penzance Mayor Jonathan How will drop the St Piran's flag to start the race.	Sun 5 Sep 11am
St Just	St Just a community team is staging all the Ordinalia mystery plays in St Just, the oldest surviving trilogy of plays in Britain (predating Shakespeare's works, written in Cornish with stage directions in Latin!). The site in St Just, a 'plen an gwari' or outdoor playing place, is arguably the most ancient working theatre space in the UK. Performances funded by Cornwall Council. Tickets via Hall for Cornwall	4 to 18 Sep
Camborne	Camborne town has a very special visual surprise for everyone on Sunday, which must remain under wraps until the day of the race.	Sun 5 th Sep
Redruth	Redruth's Town Mayor will officially unveil a new band stand in Victoria Park followed by Redruth Town Band performance. Other activities will include children's entertainment and Redruth Bowling Club will open its doors for light refreshments
Falmouth	Falmouth is holding a series of activities at Pendennis Point . Not only is this a spectacular viewing point for the Tour of Britain race, but there will also be a large TV screen broadcasting the race from 10.00 to 14.00. There will be entertainment from Stilt Walkers, demonstrations by Devon and Cornwall Police and Falmouth Wheelers , and a special performance from local dance company Embrace Dance Fitness. Food and drink vendors and toilet facilities will be available up at Pendennis Point for the duration of the event. Further information can be found here .	Sun 5 th Sep
Carnon Downs	Carnon Downs will be providing refreshments for residents, and a display of Bikes through the Ages in the Village Hall car park . The route of the race through the village is being decorated with Cornish flags, and there will be a garden decorating competition on the theme of the Tour and cycling. A field will feature some land art	Sun 5 th Sep

What's on in Cornwall | 3rd-5th September 2021 | Community Events

	as an entry to the race organisers' competition, and there will be special car parking laid on to reduce congestion in the village.
Truro	Truro welcomes the Tour of Britain with a ' Live Lounge ' free event on Lemon Quay piazza on . Truro City Council and Truro Business Improvement District have partnered with Old Bakery Studios. It includes live music, a Mountain Bike Stunt Show by multi-Guinness World Records champion Andrei Burton, a bicycle art station, DJs, street food and bar. www.visittruro.org.uk and www.oldbakerystudios.co.uk The Tour peloton crosses Lemon Quay at around 13.40.	Sun 5 th Sep from 11.30 am
St Austell	There will be Race Day Cream Tea and Pasties on the St Austell Library lawn . Halfords will be in attendance to support with any bicycle repairs.	Sun 5 th Sep from 12.30 pm
	Party in the Park at Poltair Park organised by Stepping Stones Childcare. A variety of stalls, bouncy castles, dance troops, animal encounters, food stall and refreshments.	Sun 5 th Sep 12pm-5pm
	Tour de Britain Fun Day in Truro Park . Plenty of activities such as bouncy castle, face painting, crafts, roundabout etc. The event is easily accessed via a level entrance, with hard surface footpaths around.	Sun 5 th Sep 1pm-4pm
Gover, St Austell	Community Fun Day . Lots of fun and games, bouncy castle, kiddies roundabout, face painting, balloon modelling. Come and see the snakes and spiders with Marks Ark, a Dance Work Shop, fire engine, Tombola. Hot food, teas and coffee, cold drinks. Ideally-placed to see the race go by.	Sun 5 th Sep 1pm-4pm
St Blazey	Tregrehan Mills near St. Blazey will be holding a ' Party in the Park '. It will include a male voice choir, a rock choir, the Garker Street Band, stalls, dog show and obstacle races. The village will be decorated with bikes and bunting. Parking available for blue badge holders only, so others please walk or cycle to the event.	Sun 5 th Sep 12pm-6pm
Bugle	In a 'fun day' will be centred on the Sunday School building which is on the race route. Refreshments - tea, coffee, pasties and cream teas, decorated bikes on display, competition for the best-decorated cycle helmet, flag and badge-making for the children (prior to the race coming through, so, expect a lot of flag waving as the peloton comes through the village!, estimated at 15.15. Banner making and music. All monies raised donated to Bugle Youth Club and other community projects.	Sun 5 th Sep

What's on in Cornwall | 3rd-5th September 2021 | Community Events

Bodmin	has an amazing Bike Art Trail with creatively decorated and donated bikes placed all across the town. See some of the colourful and fantastical entries here .	Sun 5 th Sep
	free-to-all open-air Music Festival and a Junior Fun Run which will make use of the competitors' finish line and podium.	Sun 5 th Sep
	Tour of Britain itself crosses the finishing line beside Bodmin Keep and Bodmin General steam railway station, expected after 15.30.	Sun 5 th Sep Approx. 3.30pm

For latest events information visit www.cornwalltourofbritain.co.uk/spectator-info/community-events